

Red Sky Vision Internal Communications

We create compelling video and motion graphics to inform, educate and motivate your workforce.

What do we do?

What can we do for you?

1 Delivery / Dissemination

Do you have a message that you would like to deliver to an audience?

Annual reports, internal presentations, staff training, etc...

2 Documenting / Info Gathering

Would you like to document an event or gather a wide range of opinion?

Research and insight, conference highlights, market reports, etc...

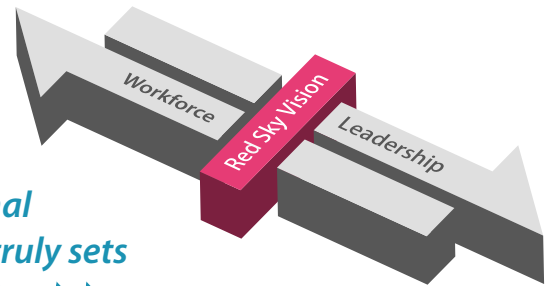

3 Promotion / Ideas

Have you got an idea or pitch that you would like to let others know about?

Case studies, new internal services, virtual tours, etc...

We are a fast moving agency that takes pride in our personal level of service and exceptional quality. It is this that truly sets us apart from the rest.

Why do we use video?

Improves engagement and retention of information

Studies show that video is most effective at communicating complex information

Improved dissemination throughout the business

Video can penetrate those areas of the business that may usually be out of reach

Consistent "voice" and clarity of message

Greater control, ensuring your message is always on brand

Understand the needs of your employees

Giving your workforce a voice will help you develop and retain talent

Improved accessibility

Video allows those that would traditionally be out of reach greater access

Ease of use regardless of location

Using visual cues makes your message easier to understand, wherever it goes

Highly measurable

Viewer statistics and analytics allows you to plan for the future

Saves time and resources

Quicker turnaround and better value than traditional communication methods

Who do we work with?

Coca-Cola Enterprises Europe Ltd.

SIEMENS

Conservatives